Location: Wijchen, NL

About:

Banken Champignons is a modern, family owned company in the food business. A vertical integration. Involved in every link of the supply chain: from growing, picking, processing, packing and refrigerated transport up to worldwide distribution and sales of fresh mushrooms. A reliable partner with a solid logistics network: 'ordered today, delivered tomorrow'.

Description job

Usually production workers start on the packing department, where mushrooms got packed in small boxes. From there on the teamleaders will assess which work fits best and based on that teach you on one of those departments: exoten, packing, fust, cutting. People with a forkliftlicense can be trained as a forkliftdriver starting at the packing department.

What can I expect?

New employees usually start at the packing department. From there the teamleaders will see, based on experience, on which department you will work:

- Δ Exoten, where exotic (fragile) mushrooms got packed in a separated closed department
- Δ Fust, where employees take care to ensure that there are enough clean crates available for the lines
- Δ Cutting, where mushrooms get cutted in small pieces
- Δ Packing, where mushrooms get packed in small boxes

You will work in a cold environment. Many Polish employees work in the production area. At your work location you will get a work coat, this is only for hygiene and not for the cold. As an employee you work in two shifts. You will change shifts every two weeks. In busy periods there will be produced in 3 shifts. Worktimes: 6:30 – 14:30, 14:30 – 22:30, 22:30 – 6:30.

“Banken Champignons is a family company and you can notice a nice atmosphere. They search for people who are available for long term. At Banken Champignons you don’t have to worry about hours, because there is a steady production.”

Where does Banken Champignons stands for?

We believe that the key to success is a shared passion for mushrooms. A passion that extends from our growers who cultivate the tastiest mushrooms right up to the shop assistant enthusiastically describing the best way to prepare and enjoy them. We want to share our passion with consumers all over the world.

A passion we translate into quality in the chain. Quality is safeguarded and embedded in every link. From growing to harvest, to sourcing, packing, processing and marketing fresh mushrooms and ready-to-eat mushroom concepts.
