What can I expect?

Belki is a large professional organisation, where in addition to the slaughter of broilers, a wide variety of poultry related activities take place.

Quality and hygiene are of paramount importance for which strict protocols are in place.

Depending on your job, you work in a cool environment and it is physical work. In the canteen there is a microwave available to heat up your meal.

Meet: Belki

Location: Aars, Belgium

About:

Belki has been a leading poultry slaughterhouse for almost 25 years, with a unique product range (organic farm chicken, Mechele Koekoek, con chicken, ducken preparations) present in the top segment of Belgian retail and poultry wholesalers in the Benelux and France.
